

Year 7 – Spring 1 –

I can reflect on my use of inference.

18. Final Assessment

What do I still need to know?

19. DIRT

I can communicate my knowledge.

20. How can I share my knowledge?

21. How do we continue to be inspired by these texts?

On to the origins of fairytales and Aesop.

I can improve my inference skills.

I can write a well thought-out draft.

17. Drafting

I can articulate these ideas.

16. How can I clearly express my ideas?

15. How can I read for meaning?

I can recognise traditional villains in ancient writing.

14. Who or what is Grendel?

The best inference I can use.

10. Mini Assessment

How can I improve?

11. DIRT

What connection do we have?

12. The Anglo-Saxon language

13. Who or what is Beowulf?

We can recognise traditional heroes in ancient writing.

Stories are fun to explore.

Writing has layers of meaning.

9. Why did we tell stories about King Alfred?

Writing can create legends

8. How can I use inference?

7. Why did we tell stories about King Arthur?

Identity is connected to language.

6. What is Old English?

The power of writing

Writing improved

We used writing for stories

2. Why did humans start writing?

3. How did language evolve?

4. When did writing first come to England?

5. What stories do we have from Roman Britain?

Stories preserve important information.

What is English and what will I be learning?

1. Welcome to English!

Baseline Reading Test and AR

Baseline VR CAT test

Baseline writing test

I know the level I am working at.

